

GREENE COUNTY, OHIO
CONVENTION & VISITORS BUREAU

July 16, 2018

ARRL
Dale Williams WA8EFK
291 Outer Dr.
Dundee, MI, 48131-1014

Dear Mr. Williams:

As you and your board of directors decide on that perfect location to host your next ARRL National Convention, please consider Greene & Montgomery Counties and the entire greater Dayton region. Dayton Hamvention® 2019 is the ideal destination for your groups primary activity. Now located in Xenia, Ohio at the Greene County Fairgrounds, Dayton Hamvention has loads of green space, expansive exhibit and flea market areas not to mention some of the greatest amateur radio suppliers in one location!

Looking for additional things to do in the area? We're home to Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, the Wright Brothers and the National Museum of the USAF. There is no shortage on aviation history. The Wright Cycle Shop, the Aviation Heritage Center, Carillon Historic Park (you'll find the real Wright Flyer III there!) the Huffman Prairie Flying Field and Interpretive Center, the list is expansive. As the 'birthplace of aviation' our destination provides a truly unique visitor experience not found elsewhere.

You'll find other terrific attractions nearby with Historic Clifton Mill, the Village of Yellow Springs, Young's Jersey Dairy, and plenty of shopping at the Greene Towne Center, Mall at Fairfield Commons and Tanger Outlet stores. Dayton has world class museums, a nationally known children's discovery museum the Boonshoft Museum, a vibrant arts scene, and delectable dining establishments.

We have ample meeting space, thousands of rooms to host your attendees. It would be our honor to assist any way we can.

Please review the information we've forwarded for your consideration and let us know how we can be of further assistance.

Most sincerely,

Lisa Willis
Sales Manager

Things to Do - Within a 15 Minute Drive

National Museum of the US Air Force – The National Museum of the U.S. Air Force, located at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base is the world's largest military aviation museum. With free admission and parking, the museum features more than 360 aerospace vehicles and missiles and thousands of artifacts amid more than 17 acres of indoor exhibit space. Each year about one million visitors from around the world come to the museum. For more information, www.nationalmuseum.af.mil (937) 255-3286.

Wright Brothers Memorial – This historic memorial overlooks Huffman Prairie where Orville and Wilbur Wright flew their experimental airplanes and the Wright Company conducted a flying school. Free Admission. (937) 425-0008

Huffman Prairie Flying Field & Interpretive Center – It was here that the Wright Brothers learned how to fly. See where the brothers successfully mastered the mechanics of controlled, powered, heavier- than air flight. Visit the new Interpretive Center. A National Park Ranger will bring history to life! Free Admission. www.nps.gov/archive/daav/pla_fac_huffmanprairie.htm (937) 425-0008.

Wright Cycle Company – Tour the restored Wright Cycle Shop in the historic Wright-Dunbar Neighborhood where the Wright Brothers developed many of their aviation concepts. www.nps.gov/daav/planyourvisit/facilitysites.htm (937) 225-7705.

Carillon Historical Park – Carillon Historical Park engages you to sample Dayton's rich heritage of creativity and invention! Founded by Colonel Edward and Edith Deeds, the Park is situated on a beautiful 65-acre campus between the Great Miami River and a glacial moraine. The Park immerses you in the region's history - from Dayton's founding in 1796 through two centuries of expansion, industrialism and innovation. Learn about these revolutionary achievements while strolling through the Park's 25 historical buildings and interacting with the hundreds of artifacts in our exhibits. See the restored 1905 Wright Flyer III, the world's first practical airplane. This airplane made history over Huffman field in Greene County. www.daytonhistory.org/destinations/carillon-historical-park (937) 293-2841. Carillon Park Brewing Co. Yellow Springs, Ohio - The village of Yellow Springs, surrounded by beautiful parks and cliffs, is known for its regional attractions, wonderful downtown shops and interesting dining. It's culturally diverse with an emphasis on being open and friendly. Plan to spend time roaming the village streets for unique gifts of hand-thrown pottery, fiber arts, one of a kind stained glass pieces...and much, much more. www.yellowspringsohio.org (937)-767-2686.

Young's Jersey Dairy – Young's Jersey Dairy is a delightful locally owned and operated farm where ice cream is made from dairy cows at the facility. There's something for everyone: a goat petting zoo, miniature golf, heated driving range, a farm-themed gift shop, a restaurant on the premises and of course great ice cream! www.youngsdairy.com (937) 325-0629.

Historic Clifton Mill – Built in 1802, this is one of the largest water-powered grist mills still in existence. With breathtaking views of the Clifton Gorge, you can enjoy a home cooked meal for breakfast or lunch overlooking a covered bridge. Browse the gift shop decorated with antiques from a bygone era. Tour the working mill on each hour from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. from March 1st to October 1st. www.cliftonmill.com/index.html (937) 767-5501.

The Mall at Fairfield Commons - Visit the shops, boutiques and an incredible array of department stores. A full range of services are available to compliment your shopping experience. A Dining Court on the second level offers an assortment of foods for your palette. www.mallatfairfieldcommons.com (937) 427-4300.

THE GREENE - Unlike anything the Miami Valley has experienced before, THE GREENE is a fun and unique shopping and entertainment destination with upscale shops and restaurants. The region's new village-like open mall concept with cobblestone streets and a green space focuses on a family experience filled with possibilities for all. www.thegreene.com (937) 490-4990.

Kil-Kare Raceway - Xenia is the home of this 1/4 mile Dragway and 3/8 mile semi-banked asphalt Speedway. Events hosted nightly, please check website for details. www.kilkare.com/ (937) 429-2961.

Dayton Aviation Heritage National Park — This multi-site park tells the stories of flight inventors Wilbur Wright and Orville Wright and African American poet Paul Laurence Dunbar. Visit the historically refurbished Wright brothers' printing office, walk through an original Wright brothers' bicycle shop, see the Wright brothers' third airplane, follow Wilbur and Orville's footsteps at the Huffman Prairie Flying Field, and experience Paul Laurence Dunbar's last home. www.nps.gov/daav (937) 225-7705.

Oregon Arts District — Dayton's original arts and entertainment district has something for everyone, from art galleries to vintage stores, trendy restaurants to laid-back watering holes, along with an independent movie house, comedy club, and even a climbing center and yoga studio. In the 2008 People's Choice Awards, the District won more honors than any other Dayton destination. www.oregonartsdistrict.com (937) 224-1518.

RiverScape MetroPark — Located along the Great Miami River in the heart of Downtown Dayton, this park features interactive fountains in the summer and ice skating in the winter, landscaped gardens, exhibits and invention stations highlighting the city's history, and a concession stand open year-round. RiverScape connects to more than 60 miles of recreational trails and in the summer hosts laser, light and music shows, along with numerous festivals. www.metroparks.org/Parks/Riverscape/Home.aspx (937) 274-0126.

America's Packard Museum aka The Citizens Motorcar Company — The museum features over 50 automobiles on display in the restored Art Deco showroom, service department and pavilion. In addition, significant artifacts from the Packard Motorcar Company are on display. The January 1998 edition of Car Collector magazine named the museum one of the "Top Ten Automotive" museums in the United States. www.americaspackardmuseum.com (937) 226-1710.

Boonshoft Museum of Discovery - Extraordinary traveling exhibits and interactive experiences will spark your imagination as you explore the Boonshoft Museum of Discovery's 94,000 square feet and two stories of unlimited learning potential. See a real Egyptian mummy, witness explosive science shows, and dance to the rhythms of the color wall. The Museum houses the region's only Planetarium, a live animal zoo, a three-story climbing tower, and much more. www.boonshoftmuseum.org/ (937) 275-7431.

Carriage Hill MetroPark — Farm life in the 1880s comes alive at Carriage Hill Farm. Visitor Center exhibits start the journey back in time while demonstrations, reconstructed and historical buildings, and even period farm animals paint the picture. There are also acres of natural beauty to enjoy. www.metroparks.org/Parks/CarriageHill/Home.aspx (937) 278-2609

The Dayton Art Institute — One of the nation's finest mid-sized art museums, The Dayton Art Institute features world-class special exhibitions: a family-oriented, interactive Experiencecenter; and a diverse permanent collection of African, American, Asian and European Art. www.daytonartinstitute.org (937) 223-5277.

Yellow Springs Brewery - Yellow Springs Brewery is about creating more than just great tasting beer. We're about Crafting Truth to Power. Things to Do - Within a 30 Minute Drive

Ceasars Creek Winery – Our core goal is to produce excellent wines from Ohio grapes which customers find pleasing and enjoyable. We pride ourselves in making “estate wines.” This means that the wines from our 2012 vintage are made on site from grapes grown in our vineyard, fermented, bottled, labeled, and aged in our winery, and sold in our tasting room. This is unusual for an Ohio winery, but it is our objective to be true to the finest winery traditions of France and California where the winemaker knows and loves her land and vines, and makes the best possible wine she can from them. <http://caesar-creek.com/> (937) 479-4278

LaComedia Dinner Theatre – Feast on a scrumptious dinner and end the evening by enjoying one of the many Broadway shows featured at the theatre year-round. Reservations required. www.lacomedia.com (937) 746- 4554.

Dayton Dragons Minor League Baseball – Fifth Third Field, a 7,200 seat stadium located in downtown Dayton, is home to the Dayton Dragons, a single-A affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds. Dragon season is April through mid – September. www.daytondragons.com (937) 228 BATS.

Grandpa’s Garage – This former antique mall has 31,000 square feet of inventory focused on cars, motorcycles, trains, and planes. More than 100 dealers under one roof offer cars, parts, signs, collectible toys, die-cast models, car books and magazines, license plates, posters, and more. Open 7 days a week 10-6, right off I-70 at Springfield exit #59. www.i70grandpasgarage.com (937) 324-8448
