Seconded: Mr. Holden

To bring Article 1 of the Articles of Association of the ARRL into alignment with Connecticut state statutes and per the instructions of the Secretary of the State of Connecticut to Connecticut counsel for ARRL, Article 1 is amended to add the following sentence at the end thereof:

The Corporation is nonprofit and shall not have or issue shares of stock or make distributions.

The Article would then read:

Article 1: The name of our corporation shall be The American Radio Relay League, Incorporated. It may be informally referred to as ARRL, the national association for Amateur Radio. Our corporation commenced its corporate existence as The American Radio Relay League, Incorporated, when its Articles of Association were approved by the Secretary of the State of Connecticut on January 29, 1915. The original Articles of Association were subscribed by Hiram Percy Maxim, Clarence D. Tuska and Lawrence A. Howard. The affairs of the corporation have since that time been continuously governed by a Board of Directors selected by the membership. The Corporation is nonprofit and shall not have or issue shares of stock or make distributions.
